Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company, Ltd.

Notice Regarding the Merger of Max Life Insurance Company Limited, Indian Equity Method Affiliate

Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company Ltd. (“MSI”, President: Noriyuki Hara), a member of the MS&AD Insurance Group hereby announces that Max Life Insurance Company Ltd. (“Max Life”), an equity method affiliated company of MSI has reached a basic agreement regarding the merger with Max Financial Services Ltd.*<sup>1</sup> and HDFC Standard Life Insurance Company Ltd. (“HDFC Life”) on August 8, 2016.

1. The purpose of the merger

The MS&AD Insurance Group has invested in leading life insurance companies in India and other various countries in Asia through MSI, to secure profitability in anticipated growth in the Asian region over the medium to long-term, and to achieve synergies with our non-life insurance business, where we are ranked No. 1 in the ASEAN region.

We expect the newly merged company will gain around 400 billion yen*<sup>2</sup>. We expect it to lead to greater profit growth and improvement in enterprise value. This will be achieved through expansion in scale, which will reduce costs, expand sales networks, and improve products development, among other benefits.

2. Future business development

As one of the shareholders of the newly merged company, MSI will continue to focus on the life insurance business in India. By providing our varied expertise in that business and higher quality products and services, cultivated both in Japan and overseas, we will work toward the development of the life insurance market in India.

Please note that the structure of the new company, timing of the merger have not yet been determined.
