

Risk Attachment Clause

(This clause shall be applied where the subject-matter insured is supplied by other parties to the Assured.)

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this insurance (excepting coverage against War Risks) shall not attach until the risk of loss or damage to the subject-matter insured shall be transferred to the Assured, subject to the Incoterms, other common trade terms or a specific binding contract.